v.

22-cv-262-PP

B. STATEMENT OF CLAIM

On the space provided on the following pages, tell:

1. Who violated your rights;
2. What each defendant did;
3. When they did it;
4. Where it happened; and
5. Why they did it, if you know.

Officer Joseph Belisle, on February 23, 2019, in the city of Fond du Lac, Wisconsin, seized the plaintiff by the arm as he was walking past him, not knowing who the plaintiff was; and did not have specific and articulable facts to seize the plaintiff, detain him and question him, as his hood was up, had glasses on, it was dark and raining out, and his size was the only factor, and officer Belisle refused to let go of plaintiff; and officer Belisle did these things in bad faith, illegally, unconstitutionally and unreasonably.

Furthermore, officer Belisle even though he grabbed plaintiff and was looking right at him, from two feet away, still did not recognize plaintiff; and went so far as to fabricate that he knew who plaintiff was, and perjured himself in court about being able to identify plaintiff; and officer Belisle knew this to be false and was a reckless disregard for the truth and plaintiff's Fourth Amendment right, made in bad faith and was done egregiously in court.
